“ Bobby was the sweetest guy I knew back in 1991. we met at a local bar. He was a fun dancer but he always fell asleep on me so I would drive his 4 speed red truck back to RBC every other Friday night because ladies night was Fridays. He bought me some Dingo Boots one time and of course some low life biker chick stole them. It was a fun thing we had, always on the River with the kids, always having fun. He was a great guy. Thank you for sharing our daughter with me. He had no restrictions or anything against the way I lived so we shared custody without a feud. You'll be the guy that rocked everybody's world. Enjoy Heaven.....where the angels sing.....

“ My most amusing memory of my uncle Bobby was when he came to California and lived with us. He had a snake that he kept and one day it got loose. My mom(his sister Diane) put towels under all the doors at night, so we could sleep without the snake slithering in. The next morning my mother went in her closet and the snake had been locked up with her all night. She was furious with him. At the time it wasn't funny but now when you look back it was definitely funny. He was always a kind and fun Uncle. I'll miss him forever.
