“ Brenda was my mother in law. She was a very special Godly woman. She was one of the sweetest women that I had ever met. She loved all her family unconditionally. There is no doubt that we were prayed for every day by her. Now she gets to join her late husband Jerry in heaven. Fly high Brenda. You will be missed by many.

Brenda was more than a sister-in-law to me and the aunt to my children when we were both young. She was my friend. Although the years, life and distance separated us, I continued to remember the good times we had when our children were very young. She was a sweet, beautiful woman inside and out.
