“ Debbie was my friend since childhood. We played Barbies for hours! Summers were spent roaming the woods and pastures near our homes. We stayed in touch throughout the years and she wrote me many sweet letters. Debbie was devoted to her mother and her daughter. I think what I remember most is her laugh - it never changed. My heart breaks that she left this earth so early in her life; however, I am comforted by the thought that she is no longer suffering. I am grateful that Debbie was a part of my life and I am unspeakably sad that she left us.
