For anyone who didn't have the privilege to meet Glenn, he was one of the hardest working men I will ever know. One who dedicated his life to his entire family. He gave like no other. Always had a smile. He loved to joke and make you smile. He loved his wife and only son, Elbert more than words can say. His loved his grandsons Zachary and Alec with his own heart. He taught them so much and was always there for them even through his sickness. I know they will feel like their home place is not the same without their papaw. But as they know him " he would say go on, work and make something of yourself, take care of Brenda as he always wanted his wife, Brenda taken care of. There are not enough words that can even begin to describe Glenn. I love him and I appreciate everything he ever did for me. He loved Madison as his own granddaughter. His heart is like no other. He has no more suffering. He would want his grandsons to do as he taught them. Most important be the best they can be. "Gone but he will never be forgotten" 💙💙💙💙 I am honored God bless me to be around him and honored God blessed my sons to have a Papaw like no other than Glenn Alverson!!!!
