“ Ezra, we were so excited waiting on your arrival. We never dreamed the outcome would be you going to heaven so soon. As happy as we are for you, we're selfish and wanted you here with us. It sure wasn't because you weren't loved. Until we meet you on the other side, know that you will be carried in the hearts of many. Rest well little man. We will miss you until our dying days. Xxoo

Ezra, I cannot imagine how beautiful what you are seeing at this moment looks like, or how it feels to be face to face with our Lord. I do know that you will be missed so much by so many people. If god had not called you home you would have been born into an amazingly loving family. You would have had a mother and father who adored you beyond belief and a grandmother and other family who would have loved and spoiled you as much as any other child in this world. But there is nothing we can do or give that will come close to the love you are feeling in the arms of our Savior. You will be missed but always remembered.
