“ I am so sad that Ms. Florence has left this side of life so soon and pray that God continue to comfort her family and friends. I am going to miss her very much especially each month when talk to her about the things needed in her apartment. Ms. Florence always was a very determine lady when it came to getting things fixed in her apartment and getting her mail box moved. I remember that when I couldn't get the postmaster on the phone to come and move her mail box, after a couple of calls from Ms. Florence, he was here changing her box out. lolol. I am going to miss her laughs and smiles and her calling me about her apartment and oh yes and giving me food. She said, "You have all of those grandchildren that you are taken care of so I have some things for you that I am not going to eat, so come over and get it." We were very bless to have her at Brookstone Village Apartments and I was very bless to call her my friend. RIP Florence, miss you!

“ Florence Mcdonald, was so loving and giving. When I was a child, too young to work, my sister, Florence, worked at a department store. Every pay day, Florence would give me an allowance of twenty-five cents! Appreciating the gift she had bestowed, off I'd run to Haynes Grocery Store for my candy fix. Florence was also always there for me in my Adult life. She never turned me away nor let me down. My Sister will forever live in my heart.

Florence lived across the street from us, the Noells, most all of our young lives. We never had a cross word. Florence has always had the kindest heart and was the best friend that anyone could have. I am so sorry that her life was cut short. Even tho I didn't get to see her as much as I wanted, she has always held a special place in my heart. I will miss her and her constant reminder of how we all should live our lives.

Florence has been a very special friend all the time I have known her. My heart is broken but she has gone to a place. Where she is happy and free from pain. Loved her dearly and will miss her but will see her again! Sue
