“Geral and I had so many good memories growing up together. She was my sister-in-law who was always there to take my phone calls. I will miss our conversation and hearing her voice. My prayers are with the family. Rest in peace Geral. 🙏

“I remember how Aunt Geraldine would let us kids go out back and pick up pecans. She was a great lady and I loved receiving phone calls from her!

“ Dear Kim, Gayla & Family,
My heart is breaking for you & family. I love Geraldine, & she had a precious heart & cared about everybody. I will miss her but, I know she is in Heaven & is not suffering anymore. She was such a loving person. I know she is with our Lord & Savior and smiling her beautiful smile. She is with her Billy & other Family members that she absolutely adored & loved so much. She loved to cook & loved her Grandchildren & her Grand nieces & Grand Nephews. She loved telling me about all of them & how precious they were to her!! I know each of them will miss her dearly. All of you are in my thoughts & prayers. May God comfort each of you.
Lovingly,
Elaine Callaway(Brooks) Singleton
