

Glenda Bankson Hall

November 20, 1951 - January 20, 2021

Glenda Bankson Hall, 69, of Gadsden, passed away on Wednesday, January 20, 2021.

Glenda was passionate about animals' rights and loved all animals. She was an avid Alabama football fan. She enjoyed spending time with her family, whom she loved greatly.

She was preceded in death by her parents, David and Dora Bankson; brother, Dewayne Bankson; and husband, Willis Hall.

Glenda is survived by her daughter, Amy (Angel) Brown-Campbell; grandson, Austin Thomason; sister, Margaret Oshita (Roger Coan); nephews, Jon (Robin) Oshita, Jason (Brittany) Oshita, and Josh (Kelly) Oshita; niece, Alicia Bankson; a host of great-nieces and great-nephews; beloved dogs, Tink and Simon; and special friends, Judy Pledger, Phyllis Faulkner, Fay Stevens, and Kathy Campbell.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the Etowah County Humane Society.

Special thanks to the 7th floor CCU staff at Riverview Regional, Bobby Autwell, Angie Ford, and Dr. Debora Reiland.

I met Glenda selling her Avon. It was like we had always been friends. A house came up for sale across the street from me and she bought it. We were Happy about that. We did lots of things together until she got so sick. She was my sweet friend and I miss her so much. Fly high friend. I will see you again in heaven. Love you
