“ As far as I can remember, there has been Aunt Gloria. Her laughter, her wisdom, her insight to family will fill my heart the rest of my days.

One of my favorite memories but also one that still haunts me. I had begged her to take me to the drive-in movies. I truly thought that I could handle a scary movie. We went to the drive-in at Eastwood mall area. (It was demolished when they built the mall). The movie was THE FLY. It came to a scene where the fly is in trouble and with a haunting voice came...." HELP ME..HELP ME" I dove into the back-seat and started to cry. I begged as I had a few hours earlier for her to take me HOME! No way, she told me to put the pillow over my head and go to sleep!

When the new Fly was released, starring Jeff Blume, I told my children the story of my earlier movie adventure. Now, if I say to my family "kill that fly", they respond with, "HELPME.. HELP ME!"

It is a funny memory but still gives me the whillies!
