“Helen was a sweet soul. She was my cousin. As children we spent time playing for hours and hours. My favourite times were at decoration when the whole family of Granny Nailers gathered by Gunterville Lake, after putting flowers on the graves of those gone before us, for a HUGE dinner on the ground. There were so many of us it would be a small town. And afterward we would often go to one of the houses of aunts or uncles to make homemade ice cream or make music on someone's front porch.

The last time I saw Helen was at Mount Olive cemetery. She was leaving flowers on her JD and Edith's grave and I was leaving them on my Daddy's, Brothers, Grandparents and other's graves.

She will be missed.
