“ Hank has been a long time friend to us. There are so many things I could write that happen during our time of friend ship. But the one that stands out in my mind is how he loved his family and worked so hard to make things happen. We had a lot of laughs and good times eating. When the snow of 93 came thru we all gather at my house with 15 others we would go to each others house and gather food and cook over the fire place so much fun. I will miss his always smiling face .Praying for you all. We love you all

Thank you Frances, I have told this story many times, I am very proud of daddy for the big heart he had for helping others. This man worked from dusk till dawn to provide for his family and have the things he wanted, I'm glad he instilled that in his children. I will miss him so much.

“one year I was helping Hank in his shop. It was summer time and we both liked to fish. So we decided we would put some trot lines on the river, we could work during the day and late every evening go check our lines. Well this worked out good. we had lots of fun fishing and caught lots of cat fish .we also caught lots of carp. everyone knows what a carp is! they are not fit to eat .. well we kept on catching several every time we ran our lines .big ones too.. So hank said to me "You know jack black folks say that you can put them carp in a pressure cooker an cook them for about 2 hours an make patty's out of them and they taste just like salmon". So I said "ok next one we catch we will give it a try". Well we caught a nice one about a 5 pounder. So we clean it carried it home an put it Dots pressure cooker for 2 hours...When time was up we took the lid off that cooker and the smell would knock you down IT WAS AWFUL!.... Dot said for us to get that stinking thing out of the house I thought she was going to beat both of us lol.. Sorry for your loss ..I thought a lot of Hank and had lots of good times together. I wont be able to make it to his funeral for I am out town an want be back till next week.. Pam my thoughts an prayers are with you an all the family..... Jackie samples
