“ I remember right after he was born walking over to see y'all and playing with him while you went to take a shower. I asked you if I could take him back to mom and dad's and watch him for awhile so you could rest. You hesitated, but I talked you into letting me keep him for about an hour. Soon as I showed him to mom he messed all over and out of his diaper...whew. I remember watching and laughing at him have so much fun in the kitchen sink bath! I always knew I wanted kids, but having fun with him that day, sealed the deal!!

“ Jamison was my best friend. We haven't been close for a long time but he was still my best friend. We were attached at the hip when we were teenagers. One time we went to the creek close to my dads & I fell in the water. He almost made me walk back home but he found a jacket in the trunk for me to sit on. One other time Tori Leek and I went trick or treating with him (we were 17-19) but none of us brought a bag. We ended up using a band uniform hat to put candy in. I'm so thankful for the many more memories I had with him. Oh my gosh I can't believe he's gone. Love you Charlotte! We are here!
