“ Jeff was my dear sweet cousin who I love so much! It has hit me so hard tonight. We also graduated high school together. A few years after high school he got to where he would drop my my house (which was really a family home belonging to his Aunt Frances') so he knew where it was. Anyway, i thought Jeff was kinda quiet in high school to me anyway, so when he started dropping by to see me every now and then I really felt honored in fact. AND I AM GLA D we had those visits together. IT WAS LIKE THAT FAMILY BOND was just back. I saw a side of Jeff that everybody might not know he had and that was that he had such a an empathetic and compassionate heart for people and that included me. He showed me such a beautiful side of himself and I truly love him and I am gonna miss him always. I want everyone just to lift his mother Gloria and his brother Cary in prayer during this time. He was a very special person!

Being Gloria's younger sister I was a teenager when Jeff was born and I fell in love with this child. He was so beautiful and so precious. As an adult Jeff stood by his mother through everything. He loved Gloria so much and he checked on his mother and Randy everyday. He and Bb would come by and bring them anything they needed. This is so hard and Gloria appreciates every prayer and every kind word. We love you Jeff

When I lived with them in Tennessee I fell in love with both boys. They were like brothers to me. I will always cherish those memories. I love my Aunt Gloria so very much and my heart breaks for her. I'm praying for her, Cary and Randy. From one grieving Mother to another, I will walk with her on this awful journey anytime she needs me. You're a wonderful sister to her Aunt Rosie and I love you.
