

Jeremy Scott Wilks

March 2, 1990 - December 4, 2014

A celebration of life service will be 12 noon Monday, December 8, 2014, at Village Chapel for Jeremy Scott Wilks age 24 of Gadsden who died December 4, 2014. Reverends Nathan Glenn and Jack Smith will officiate. Burial will take place at Fairview Baptist Church Cemetery.

Jeremy grew up on Noccalula Mountain and graduated from Gadsden City High School in 2009. He was a very talented singer, songwriter, and musician; playing country music mixed with a variety of southern, classic, and modern rock. He started playing guitar and writing music at an early age. Jeremy learned how to sing in his church choir along with singing in the high school choir. In 2010, he recorded his first music demo titled "Wanna Be With You". In a recent interview, Wilks said "I have always loved music, and getting to play live shows for crowds of people only adds fuel to that fire inside my soul." That statement explains Jeremy perfectly.

He proudly served his country in the United States Navy aboard the USS Dwight D. Eisenhower. Jeremy was a people person and loved making everyone happy with his laugh and contagious smile. They say only the good die young, but you can't help but question why? Jeremy Wilks, you will be missed and we all love you so much.

“ I was Jeremy's Youth pastor several years ago. I never saw him without a smile on his face. And his smile could light up a room! Every time I have been around him I have been better because of it. You will be missed Jeremy. God bless your family in this time of grief.

“ I remember when Jeremy first got to Crash. He was a great guy. One of the few southerners in crash. There were only 3 of us. I left the Navy in 2011 and when I was moving all my stuff out of my apartment I called Jeremy and asked him if he needed a bed since he had just moved in with a couple guys from Crash. He got excited when I told him it was free. It was always so funny to me how he would get excited over even the little things.

The news of Jeremy's death crushed me. Wilks family... I am so so sorry for your loss. God has brought home a wonderful soul. I just know Jeremy is up there singing his tale off with the greats.
