Jerry Wayne Kirkland, 70, of Southside, passed away on Thursday, September 30th, 2021. Graveside services will be held at 12 p.m. Saturday, October 2, 2021, at Pilgrims Rest Cemetery, Southside. Blake Jones of Rainbow City Church of Christ will officiate. Village Chapel Funeral Home and Crematory is in charge of arrangements.

Jerry was born July 18th, 1951, and lived most of his life in the Gadsden area. He was a loving husband, father, step-father, grandfather and friend to many. He had a servant's spirit and was always working on something for his children or grandchildren. Jerry was well known in Southside for his knowledge of small engines and probably repaired many of your lawnmowers and weed-eaters. There was rarely a time he wouldn't drop whatever he was doing to help someone in need and proved himself to be a loyal and true friend. Jerry loved spending time with his family, especially being a pawpaw to his five grandchildren, who he loved more than life. He was a Christian man who loved God and was a proud veteran of the United States Army. He was loved by many and will be greatly missed.

Jerry was preceded in death by his parents, Jerry Travis and Virginia Kirkland; and brother-in-law, Nick Garrard.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara Kirkland; son, Andy (Amber) Kirkland; step-daughter, Mandy Spraley; stepson, Dave (Jessica) Lasseter; grandchildren, Luke Contris, Andrew Kirkland Jr., Brock Kirkland, Benjamin Lasseter, and Charlotte Lasseter. He is also survived by his brothers and sisters, Brenda Garrard, Peggy (L.J.) Wood, Ronnie (LaGinia) Kirkland and Steve (Kathy) Kirkland.

Pallbearers will be Steve Kirkland, Andy Kirkland, Dave Lasseter, Luke Contris, Andrew Kirkland, and Brock Kirkland.

Jerry and my path would have probably never crossed, but he married my wife's sister. Jerry was a great guy and we hit it off great. We always liked to talk and fish. Jerry was a friend for life and I'm proud he became my friend.
