“ Hello dad, it's been a long time! I think about you often and wonder what life would have been like if I stayed in AL all those years ago. I'm sorry about the way our lives went their separate ways. I just want you to know I turned out alright. I'm a police officer in Texas now. I have a wife, two beautiful girls. I've told them all you. I still remember our last phone conversation. I'd sure love to have another.

I'll never forget the time I got to go to work with when I was little. I stayed up all night because I thought I wouldn't wake up if I slept. Then I'd be a tough guy and lay shingles on a roof without a shirt. Boy was that a mistake. You never let me live that one down :)

I miss you dad! Say hi to family up there for me. Your Son - Chris

“ My condolences to the family. My prayers are with you all at this time. I will never forget the time he smashed a tomato in my face. He almost past out once when Benny was getting blood drawn in Birmingham. I can still hear Benny laughing at him. Lots of good memories.
