

Joey Hillsman

August 24, 1974 - October 18, 2020

A memorial service will be held at a later date for Joey Hillsman, 47, of Attalla, died on Sunday, October 18, 2020.

He was preceded in death by his father, Joe David Hillsman; mother, Delores Ann Hood; grandparents, Audrey and Pete Franklin; and aunt, Margie Mince. He is survived by his wife, Jennifer Hillsman; daughters, Eternity Hillsman, Destiny Hillsman, Kathrine Hillsman, and Samantha Hillsman; sisters, Lisa (Ray) Hendrix, Tammy (John) O'Bryant, and Gina (Jimmy) Keeton; and a host of nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews.

Special thanks to Refiners Fire Mission, waitresses and owners of Garretts Cafe, Meagan Clem, Cordell Hendrix, Angie Duke, Joe and Scotty Clay, Mini Mart and their employees, Casey and Kaitlyn Hendrix, Amber Hendrix, Kerry and Lisa Simpson, and to anyone else who has helped in any way, thank you.

Tribute Wall

KS

“ Kevin Sheppard lit a candle in memory of Joey Hillsman

Kevin Sheppard - March 27, 2024 at 02:13 AM

EH

“ Once, dad and I had this bush that wouldn't quit growing, we kept cutting it and cutting it. Dad burned it down because it just would not stop growing. A couple weeks later, this bush grew back. And I'll never forget when dad told me "life will always find a way." Just like him. He's not gone, he is just finding his way.

eternity hillsman - October 23, 2020 at 06:49 PM

DH

“ we will always love you. thank you for always being here, for taking care of us & for giving us all these life lessons. we're gonna miss you so much dad. things won't be same without you here but i hope you're in peace now. ill never forget you. we loved you so much.

Destiny Hillsman - October 23, 2020 at 05:39 PM