“ My Uncle John was the sweetest and kindest person I've known. He talked with me about the Bible and always had encouraging advice. He prayed with me and for me. I moved to Centre almost two years ago and with the virus concerns we were not able to see each other very often anymore. We called each other just to keep our connection of love for one another. I will miss him but I know as he told me often, he was ready to go when God decided it was time. Rest with your family who have gone on before you. I love you.
