“ We will love you and miss you forever, my sweet Uncle Jack. Thank you for all you did for me and my daughters, Ava and Mia. Thank you for being at every graduation. Thank you for walking me down the aisle at my wedding. Thank you for being there when I had health issues or car troubles. Thank you for being the only grandpa-type my kids ever knew. Thank you for your kindness and generosity for so many years. You were the absolute best uncle a girl could hope for. You were always there to help. You were a cheerful helper and giver. You were a good and reliable man. Everyone should have an uncle like you. I feel so blessed to have had you for all these years and I'm heartbroken that you had to leave. I know you are in a much better place now and free from pain, but I still wish I could have kept you here with us. Until we meet again, I'll be thinking of you telling me, "I love you too, sweetheart." God Bless You, Uncle Fonzi. ❤️
