“ I remember Judy taking her children, me, and I-can't-remember-who-else to the beach. Kim and I were in high school--maybe tenth grade. I remember this because I was going through a hard time and getting away was good for me. I specifically recall Judy packing cold wash cloths to put on her face as she drove so that she could stay awake! (I think she had worked the night before we left.) Judy was a tough, fun, welcoming mom who loved her children and their classmates. I send my condolences and prayers to you all and hope your wonderful memories and the love of family and friends bring you comfort at this incredibly sad time. With love, Leslie Colvin Seiffert
