

Melanie Weaver Gulledge

February 7, 1971 - August 5, 2025

Graveside services will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday, August 10, 2025, at Rainbow Memorial Gardens for Melanie Weaver Gulledge, 54, of Attalla, AL, who died Tuesday, August 5, 2025. Rev. Dennis Hayes will officiate. Village Chapel Funeral Home and Crematory is in charge of arrangements.

Melanie was born on February 7, 1971, in Gadsden, AL. A proud native of Etowah County, she graduated from Etowah High School in 1989. Melanie pursued a career in nursing, a role she embraced with grace, dedication, and kindness. More than her professional achievements, Melanie was best known as a loving wife, devoted mother, and cherished grandmother. Her warmth, strength, and selfless nature touched the lives of all who knew her. Melanie brought love and light into every space she entered.

Mrs. Gulledge is survived by her husband, Mark Gulledge; children, Kristen Ingram and Michael Gulledge; grandson, Liam Gulledge; parents, Travis and Belinda Weaver; and her sister, Michele Wadsworth; special friends, Katie Cordell, Penny Dobbins, and Jennifer Thomas.

Pallbearers will be Troy Gulledge, Chris Roden, Keith Thomas, Jason Collins, Allen Venn, and Roger Lay.

Honorary pallbearers are Woody Johnson, Michael Wadsworth, and Kenny Cordell.

The family will receive friends Sunday from 1 p.m. until 2:30 p.m. at Village Chapel Funeral Home.

“ While going to Etowah Middle and High School one of my best friends, and even now, is Michele Weaver-Wadsworth, we stayed at each other's homes alot, and when I was at Michele's home, her younger Sister Melanie would stick to us like glue and hang around lol, it was quite fun lol:) I was very sad to hear she had passed, she was a very special person and grew to have a family of her own, I'm sure she will look over her loved ones still:) Sending my love to her Sister Michele, her parents and her Husband and children and all other family and friends! A blessing to all who knew her, my loves to all:)
