

Mr. Melvin C. Snow

June 16, 1942 - April 8, 2017

Funeral will be 3 PM, Thursday, April 13th, 2017, at Village Chapel for Melvin C. Snow, 74, of Southside, who passed away Saturday, April 8th, 2017.

Reverend Larry Garrard will officiate. Burial will follow at Williams Southside Memorial Gardens. Village Chapel Funeral Home and Crematory is in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Snow worked at Sunbeam Bread for 30 years, and was known all over as the "Bread Man". He served as assistant chief of Southside Fire Department for many years. For a long time, he collected money in the pits at Green Valley Race Track. Melvin is preceded in death by his wife of 54 years, Laverne Snow.

He is survived by his daughters, Sandy (Clay) Fallis and Kristy (Derrick) Bowling; grandchildren, Ashton, Hunter, Hannah (Steven), Joey, Courtney, Derrick Jr, and Hali.; great-grandchildren, Ronnie and Braylee Grace; brother, Bobby (Dot) Snow; sister, Frankie "Doll" (Howard) Stout; sisters-in-law, Jean, Ruth, and Barbara; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Pallbearers will be Tony Snow, Terry Snow, Sam Bender, Wayne Snow, Kenneth Bowling, and Pete Bender.

Honorary pallbearers will be Lacy Dorough, Brittney McConnell, Chief McKee and the Southside Fire Department, and special friends, Sam and Margie Bender.

The family wishes to express a special thanks to Amedisys Hospice and to Brother Buddy O'Bryant.

The family will receive friends Thursday from 1 until 3 PM at the funeral home.

“Melvin, or Snow to all of us, was a good friend and competitor in the bread business. He was one of the first vendors I met when I started to work for Flowers Baking Co in 1986. Snow was always quick with his humor, but wasn't going to let you get his business. Several of my business dealings today were, in part, influenced by Melvin.

Prayers to your family. RIP Snow.
