“ My condolences to the family, he will be so greatly missed, over the years I became very close to randy , he was there for me anytime I needed anything that I couldn't do myself and we enjoyed many rides on the motorcycles together and trips to the Smokey's , I loved hearing his stories of days gone by and his life , although it took a few years for him to openly talk about life , I was glad we became that close and enjoyed life to the fullest in the wind , laid back peaceful country back roads , I will miss him as if he were my own brother, Go rest high on that mountain , your hard labor is done . Your new journey is the highway to heaven , oh how sweet the ride will be , until we meet again , Love u brother in Christ .
