“ So many memories, small and brief moments at Walmart - A Hug, sharing a story, making decisions for purchases, laughter and a smile and most of all - life conversations. God was the center of every conversation we held. Tim (and your Daughter) May you be comforted by the “Blanket of Prayers,” that cover you during this moment in time. “ I’m just finding out about Robins home going. I truly loved her. She was a perfect example of a godly wife and mother. The spirit of the Lord always radiated from her presence. My heart is broken for the family and all who loved her.

“ Tim and your family. Robin was such a sweet caring lady. She would stop by Richard Smith's house and bring Budda, our dog, treats food and lots of petting. Budda loved her so much he would run laps around the yard when she pulled up and try to go home with her every day. We enjoyed her visits and we're thankful Robin loved Budda as much as we did! Richard and I was very blessed to have met Robin and become friends. Heaven gained an Angel. Lori Helms “ Tim, and family; I am so sorry for your loss. Robin was the most caring and generous person that I could know. She would stop by my house and feed the dogs, and be sure they were taken care of. I am sure you will miss her, like we will.
