I didn't know Scottie, but our family knew his brother, Kim. His mom, Mildred, would babysit my brother, Danny and me when we were little. They lived just down the street from us. Kim, I'm so sorry for your loss. I truly wish I could be there for the funeral service. You are an amazing person...❤️ Our family loved your family very much. You are a trouper, and God is going to take care of you...along with some of your very dear friends. The next time I come to Gadsden, I will let you know, and maybe you can plan to hang out with us for a while, and grab something to eat before I come back home. I will be praying for you and your other family members that everything will go as planned. Much love, Kathy Webb (Tim also said to tell you that he is very sorry that you lost your brother). It was hard when we lost his brother as well.
