

Shelia Oline Hood

August 5, 1949 - March 18, 2019

Shelia Oline Hood, a long resident of Gadsden, passed away March 18, 2019 at Mercy Regional Hospital in Springfield Ohio. Shelia was born on August 5, 1949 in Alabama City, Alabama. A graduate of Piqua Central High School (OH), Sheila served as Marine soon after graduation. Her interest and training electronics prompted to her employment at Texas Instruments for several years. Shelia loved cookouts, spending time outdoors, and her dogs. It was common to find her in a rocking chair enjoying another of her passions -- reading.

Shelia leaves to cherish her memory, two sons, Shawn Hood (Gayle) and Richard Hood, both of Springfield Ohio; three brothers, Steve Ellis (Maria) of Riviera Beach, Florida, Tom Ellis (Fran) of Middletown, Ohio and Tim Ellis (Debra) of Greer, South Carolina; nine grandchildren and three great-grandchildren; two aunts, Patricia Williams, Martha (Williams) Dillard (husband-John) and one uncle, JD Williams (Lois), and a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Billie D. and Louise (Williams) Ellis of Gadsden.

Memorial service will be held at 12 PM, Saturday, June 29, 2019 at Village Chapel, Gadsden, AL. The family will receive friends from 11 AM until time of service. Burial will follow at Crestwood Cemetery.
