“ Tammy was the sweetest soul, she was so kind she would've given you the clothes off her back if she knew you needed them. A magnificent aunt, was always there to listen. She was a healing soul. She was always there for her family. My uncle couldn't have picked a better woman to be his wife. They had a magical marriage, always there for each through sickness and health. I will miss her, the world lost the kindest person when she passed but heaven gained an amazing angel.
