“ She was so carrying for everyone she met . Everyone was family she loved cooking for family gathering's. All you had to do is call her and she was there . Vickie loved her daughter and her granddaughter was her most precious gift of all . I will miss her dearly I am so glad that Becky and I came to her house for a visit and I thank God for that day . We had the best time talking about our childhood together and Vickie had the memory above all . If we ever wanted to know about our family history she knew . I Love you Vickie and now you don't need that wheelchair because you are walking those streets of Gold and with our loved ones who where there to meet you . REST IN PEACE .
